The American Heart Hospital Journal[®]

A Forum for Improving Health Care Through the Heart Hospital Concept

The physicians and administrators who direct heart hospitals face new and challenging clinical management problems and opportunities. The original papers, reviews, case studies, and specialized articles in the American Heart Hospital Journal will address these emerging needs, with focus on cardiovascular medicine, surgery, imaging and health policy.

The American Heart Hospital Journal reaches readers in the growing heart hospital and heart hospital within a hospital market. This recent concept enables all cardiac specialists to operate with a singular mission: optimal delivery of cardiovascular patient care.

This is a bi-annual subscription journal with a circulation of 15,000. The readership includes:

- Cardiologists
- Interventional radiologists
- CEOs
- Interventional cardiologists
- Echocardiologists
- CTOs
- Cardiovascular surgeons
- Radiologists
- CFOs and COOs

Editor in Chief Sylvan Lee Weinberg, MD, former President of the American College of Cardiology, has established an outstanding Editorial Board made up of world-renowned and respected master teachers and clinicians to focus on these issues.
